PRICE THREE CENTS

SCHOOL TAX RATE TO STAY THE SAME

Levy Fixed at 19 Mills and Five Dollars per Capita.

SCHOOLS CLOSE ON 17th

A tax rate of 19 mills, the same as that of the past few years, was established by the school board in its May meeting. A per capita tax of $5, which also was collected last year, was provided for.

The latter levy is assessed against every adult in the borough, whether or not property is owned or any other tax paid. It affects about 2500 persons.

The per capita tax was established several years ago to prevent an increase in the real estate millage. It has produced sufficient revenue to make possible to keep the 19-mill rate unchanged, and school board members believe that increases in the future are improbable.

Practically every school district in the State now levies a per capita tax, usually amounting to from $3 to $5 per head. It corresponds in many ways to the occupation tax set by Council, save that the school tax is uniform for all residents.

The election of two new teachers was announced by the board. They are Miss Amy J. Enion and Miss Ethel Williams. Miss Enion, who will be assigned to the first grade, is a graduate of the West Chester Normal School and has had five years' experience. She is now a junior at State College and comes to Narberth highly recommended.

Miss Williams will be the first head of the kindergarten to be established in the fall. She was chosen for the post after a long search, and will take her position at a beginning salary of $1900. She is a graduate of the special kindergarten course at Temple University and has six years' experience as a kindergarten. At Keystone State Normal School she was supervisor of the kindergarten and first grade and has been for two years in charge of the kindergarten at New Brunswick, N. J.

The board learned at its meeting that it will probably be possible to hold the classes in the Legion room of the Community Building. The individual members of the Recreation Board with whom the plan has been discussed have expressed themselves as in favor of the plan, and it will probably be confirmed by that body at its next meeting.

Proper alterations will be made

AT NAVAL ACADEMY
The family of Dr. O. J. Snyder, of Woodbine and Narberth avenues, including Mrs. Snyder, Miss Honora and Master Jimmie; and also ex-Postmaster Fred C. Patten and wife and Miss Mary Dold, are all spending the week at the Naval Academy, Annapolis, witnessing the sports preceding the embarkation of the middies on their summer's cruise. Midshipman Joseph C. Snyder and Midshipman Robert Patten have both passed the final examinations with credit and have been assigned to the battleship "Nevada" for their summer's cruise which will take them through the Panama Canal and all the way up the Pacific coast, calling at all the important ports en route. The boys will return the last week in August for a three weeks' vacation before entering upon their scholastic work at the Academy for the ensuing year.

CHURCH MAY FALL

If It Falls to Meet War Abolition Challenge, Rotary is Told.

"The abolition of war is the greatest challenge that has been made to the Christian Church and the church's failure to meet it may mean its downfall." This was the statement of Rev. Andrew H. Haughey, rector of St. Mary's Church, Ardmore, principal speaker at the weekly luncheon of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club Tuesday. His subject was "International Peace."

WEEK-END GAMES

The baseball games scheduled for the Main Line League tomorrow include Narberth at Gladwyne, Wayne at Garrett Hill and Berwyn at Paoli. Bill McCrea's Brookline Square Club team will play Aquinas A. A.

DEFEAT PAOLI BUT LOSE TO GLADWYN

Townsend Pitches Clean-Cut Games as Narberth Wins and Loses.

USE NEW GRANDSTAND

Narberth celebrated the opening of its new grandstand and the first home game of the Main Line League season by defeating Paoli, 3-2, Saturday afternoon. Music by the Lower Merion High School band led by Fred C. Patten; a civic parade, and an attendance by borough officials and a large crowd of Narberth fans marked the day's ceremonies.

The new grandstand, seating 400, was used for the first time at Saturday's game. The roof will be placed by next Wednesday's game. Although its roof was not ready, the grandstand itself was completed in time for the game. President John A. Miller of the Narberth Ball Club threw out the ball which opened the game.

Narberth was unable to score until the fourth inning, in the face of Stokes' pitching for Paoli. Only six scattered hits were permitted Narberth's sluggers. Flies to the left and center field were grabbed by Paoli fielders four times out of four.

Charlie Townsend, Princeton ace pitcher for Narberth, held Paoli down to two runs early in the game. He allowed only four scattered hits and made 17 strike-outs.

Narberth's two runs in the fourth tied Paoli, and for the next four innings goose eggs featured the score. In the ninth Burns walked to first, slid to second, and ran home.

MARIE COLLINS FIRST AMONG JUNE BRIDES

Married to J. F. Murphy, at St. Margaret's, Wednesday.

By "The Spectator."
The soft winds came and brought along the bright sunshine of a glorious first day in June, the very same as ought to be for an occasion so auspicious and glad-some. The married state had started with happy omen. From out the little organ there boomed the royal salute of the wedding march and the fervor and affection of its thrilling notes made plain that a friend indeed held forth and that his heart joined in the joyous greeting. Sebastian Rudolph never performed in finer fettle.

Into the church first came the matron of honor, Mrs. Robert E. Devine, in exquisite peach and old blue, or maybe those who know better would call it apricot. It was the note of springtime, in any event, and so were the green and orchid of the bridesmaids who followed next, Mrs. Gilbert Wallworth, whom we all know as Dorothy Mulligan, and Mrs. Thomas J. Cochrane, who, as Paula Temple, was a schoolmate of the bride in the Sacred Heart Academy at Lancaster.

Then came the bride, now for the last time Miss Marie Agnes Collins, resplendently arrayed in a gorgeous gown of white beaded Georgette, with Princess lace veil, skillfully bedecked with lovely orange blossoms in great profusion, a glowing picture of memorable charm and captivating beauty. The one hand carried a great shower bouquet and the other clung to her father, Mr. Michael Collins, who had come to give his child in holy matrimony. With measured tread they approach the sanctuary and there meet the groom, Mr. Joseph Francis Murphy, of Philadelphia, accompanied by his valiant best man and brother, Mr. John T. Murphy, Jr. The

CLETUS A. SENFT HEADS LUTHERANS

Commences Pastorate Tomorrow to Succeed Rev. M. E. McLinn.

IS MAY SEMINARY GRAD

Cletus A. Senft preaches his first sermons tomorrow as pastor of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church in Narberth. He was selected as pastor following the resignation of the Reverend Milton E. McLinn, who found his duties too arduous for one of his age. Mr. McLinn had been pastor of the church since it was built.

The Reverend Mr. Senft served as acting pastor of the church last summer, during an extended vacation of the pastor. On March 12 he accepted the call from Holy Trinity extended February 27. His pastorate becomes effective tomorrow.

Mr. Senft graduated last month with the B. D. degree from the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg, which he entered in 1924, and where he taught Old Testament history during the years of 1925-27. He was married to Florence M. Kautz, of York, June 2, 1925.

Born in Spring Grove, York county, Mr. Senft is a son of Calvin C. and Cora Trump Senft, who moved shortly after his birth to York. He received his education in the public schools of York, the York County Academy and Gettysburg College, from which he was graduated in 1924. He is a member of Delta Kappa Sigma fraternity (now Tau Kappa Epsilon).

The Mothers' Council has planned a meeting for all mothers whose children will enter the first grade next fall. This meeting will be held in the elementary building of the Narberth School Tuesday afternoon, at 2.30 o'clock. The purpose of the meeting is to give an opportunity to the mothers to meet the first grade teachers, Miss Wetherill and Miss Fox, that they may become personally acquainted with the teachers who are to introduce their children to school life, and also that they may discuss with them any problems relevant to the occasion.

Any little children not otherwise provided for at home may be brought to the school building Tuesday afternoon, where they will be entertained and cared for during the meeting by helpers secured for the purpose. No special invitations have been sent out for this meeting, and it is open to all.

HARVARD AWARD GOES TO STEARNS

Lower Merion Seniors Make Ready for Graduation Week.

GET DIPLOMAS FRIDAY

William Stearns, Class of '28 at Lower Merion High School, was awarded the annual Harvard University Club prize Tuesday morning. Stearns was absent at the time, but Dr. H. P. Ostenheimer, of the Harvard Club, presented the award at Assembly of the school to Principal C. B. Pennypacker, who later gave it to Stearns.

Scholarship, leadership and character are the three essentials for which candidates for the award are judged. Stearns' absence during the presentation may have indicated modesty as well.

A lantern slide lecture on familiar birds of the vicinity was given at the Tuesday morning Assembly by a member of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. The lecture was accompanied with imitative bird calls of amusement and interest to the student body. The program was held under the auspices of the Sophomore Science Club.

Invitations and tickets for the High School Commencement next Friday were given the Seniors Tuesday afternoon. Ten invitations and ten tickets were all that could be allotted each senior. Accompanying the invitations was the schedule of scholastic events for Commencement week.

Today the school chorus, Glee Club, and orchestra combine in an annual musical. Sunday evening the graduating class will hear the baccalaureate sermon. Tuesday night, Parents' Night, the Junior Class will perform some short plays.

Next Saturday night there will be an Alumni reception, with a short play, followed by refreshments and a dance. All the foregoing events will take place in the Senior High School auditorium.

Commencement takes place next Friday, in the Junior High School auditorium, where a Grammar School entertainment will be given Monday, June 13, and Junior High School night will be held Tuesday the 14th.

TENNIS CLUB CARD PARTY

The Narberth Tennis Club will hold its annual card party at the clubhouse next Friday evening, June 10, at 8.30 o'clock sharp. Tickets, $1 per person. There will be ice cream, cake and coffee served to those who play, and, of course, there will be prizes. The public is invited.

Don't wait for a club member to approach you—get up a table or more and make your reservations by calling the chairman, J. G. Allen, Narberth 2652-J. We shall also be glad if those participating will lend the club a couple of packs of cards for the occasion.

Don't wait until the last minute to tell us how many reservations to make for you, as we would like to know in advance for how many to prepare. Come out and bring all your friends.

A good many members enjoyed the last week-end and holiday by playing tennis. All courts are in excellent shape, and we hope, now we are having some good weather, that we will be swamped with applications to join the club.

Although re-elected, Mr. Cowin was obliged to immediately resign the position, due to instructions from his physician. Mr. Mueller has held the position before, and has proved himself well fitted for the task.

His appointment was followed by his nomination for the permanent position and he will be formally elected next month.

CHILD CRASHES IN WINDOW

Blinded by the rain and wind of last Thursday's sudden storm, Helen Peterson, 9, of the Avon Apartments, crashed through the heavy plate glass window in front of the Kirscht Barber Shop on Narberth avenue.

The child was running down the hill to her home when she was picked up by the gale and hurled against the window. Her leg was so severely cut that Dr. A. J. Denman took her to the Anderson Hospital where 25 stitches had to be taken. She is recovering at her home.

MANY PRESENT AT MONDAY'S PARADE

Impressive Exercises Held at Memorial Tablet at Playground.

DR. KOPPEL SPEAKER

The 1927 observation of Memorial Day in Narberth was an affair of dignity and community spirit. Held under the auspices of the Harold D. Speakman Post, No. 356, of the American Legion, several other local bodies participated.

The Memorial Day events began Sunday, when the post and auxiliary marched in a body to the Baptist church where their chaplain, Rev. Robert E. Keighton, held a special service, preaching on the text, "Are We a Free People?"

On Monday a parade was held in the morning, led by the veterans of the civil war, and including the Legion, Legion Auxiliary, school children, fire company, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts. Music was furnished by the drum and bugle corps of the Norristown post, whose snappy playing was a big part of the success of the parade.

The line of march brought the participants to the memorial tablet in front of the Community Building where, in the presence of a large audience, memorial exercises were held. Allan E. Shubert, commander of the post, was in charge.

Henry A. Frye, burgess and veteran, was the first speaker, telling briefly of the significance of the day. He was followed by the Rev. Christian G. Koppel, of Philadelphia, a former pastor of the Narberth Methodist Church. Rev. E. A. Shindle, of Elmwood avenue, a G. A. R. veteran, offered the prayer.

The Legion prizes for scholarship and attendance in the local public and parochial schools were awarded at that time. Medals for the boys were awarded by W. Russell Green, and for the girls by Mrs. Sarah Jones.

In the public schools the prizes went to Katharine Augst and Robert O. Graham, Jr. In the parochial school, the recipients were Agnes Wafer and John B. Thomas. All these students are in the eighth grade.

A large, beautifully designed wreath for the tablet was donated by the Narberth Flower Shop. During the day, members of the post decorated the graves of the Narberth boys who died in the service of the country during the world war.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Merit Badge examiners, and the newly-formed Radnor Brownie Pack, Miss Julia Williamson, Philadelphia Director; Mrs. Charles C. Harrison, Jr., Chairman of the Main Line Committee; Mrs. Victor I. Zelov, Chairman of Publicity of the Committee; Miss Leslie Perkins, Field Captain of the District; Miss Jane Newhall, of Philadelphia Headquarters, and the captains of several neighboring troops. After luncheon, the troop, led by its own bugle and drum corps, marched on to the field in the rear of the building and made a formation in front of a tent pitched by one of the patrols. Thirty-one Merit badges were then awarded to the various scouts by Dr. Anthony, the former rector of the Wayne Episcopal Church, under whose guidance the troop was started ten years ago. The captain then read out the various bits of community service performed by the troop during the past year, which included a gift of $25 to the Mississippi Flood Fund, which was earned individually by the scouts; working with the Neighborhood League of Wayne and entertaining at various times the children at the Bryn Mawr Hospital. A prize was awarded the patrol making the highest number of points in the Inter-Patrol Contest the past year, and two prizes each of $2.50 in gold was awarded the two scouts who have made the most notable improvement in their scout work during the period. The Boy Scout who has trained the bugle and drum corps so faithfully the past season was presented with a handsome kodak by the corps for use on his European trip this summer with the sixteen Eagle Scouts of the Wayne Troop.

The Leaders' Association at their regular meeting Monday had a picnic supper, followed by an election of officers, at the Narberth Scout House. Mrs. John Nash, of Narberth, was unanimously re-elected chairman, and Miss Jeanette Campbell, of Ardmore, secretary and treasurer. Plans were made for participation in the Girl Scout Day at Willow Grove, July 1. Quite a number of the leaders expressed their intention of attending the Leaders' Week-end, beginning June 10, at Camp Tall Trees. "More leaders" is to be the slogan of the association during the summer months, it was announced.

Want No City Annexation Here, Canvass Shows--Sees Other Plan

With the growth of the Philadelphia suburbs in the past years and their development to the point where they are virtually a part of the city, economically and socially, there has been a growing movement in some quarters in Philadelphia aiming at the eventual annexation of the suburbs. If this movement reaches the point where it will be officially incorporated in the city's development program, extreme opposition will be met from the suburbs—at least from the Lower Merion and the Narberth part of them. So a canvass here revealed this week.

Opposition, it was pointed out, would be forthcoming for several reasons and from many groups. One would be from home owners in this section who formerly resided in Philadelphia. Lower Merion and Narberth are made up almost entirely of such who moved here because they objected to conditions in the city. That these would welcome annexation and a return to those conditions is debatable.

Then there is the fear that these suburbs annexed would lose their individuality in the huge city governmental super-structure, that the voters and property owners here would have little voice in the governing of this section. Lower Merion and Narberth and the suburban communities around Philadelphia are generally regarded as much better governed than the city. They are smaller units and for that reason the various township commissions and borough councils are more attentive to the desires of their voters. Reforms and advancements in government have been instituted which it is believed would be impossible if these communities were a part of the city.

One of these cited is zoning. Narberth put in a zoning law for its protection over a year ago, and Lower Merion established one two months ago. Philadelphia has been contemplating zoning for years, but each time it has been brought up, powerful interests have defeated the project which had the backing of Germantown and like divisions. These districts, particularly Germantown, have shown a progressive and political independence of thought which has always been balked by the central city government and the fate which they have met is not one which will induce the suburbs to look upon annexation to Philadelphia with a friendly eye.

Politics Big Factor.

Added to these arguments of government, there is the matter of politics. This section has never been friendly to the Vane brand of politics which has ruled Philadelphia. The suburbs, particularly the Montgomery county ones, have always been on the other side of the fence in State political battles. That the rank and file of Republican voters here, as well as those in charge of the county political organization, would favor annexation which would throw them into the enemy camp is ridiculous. All the economical and social arguments against city annexation aside, the opposition which would be forthcoming for this political reason alone would be powerful enough to prevent for a long time the favorable majority—and more vote here which would be necessary before the annexation plans could be successful.

While there has been a growing feeling in some quarters in Philadelphia that the city should gobble up its suburbs, it is admitted that the question has not yet reached the point where need of active defense has been necessary by the various suburban communities. It is doubtful if this stage ever will be reached because the city itself is unanimous in the belief that the suburbs should be annexed. Some groups feel rather than annexation, a plan of co-operation in the metropolitan district similar to that now in force in Boston should be favored.

One of the principal backers of this scheme is the Philadelphia Regional Planning Board which has the support of the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce, other city civic bodies and individual business interests. Some of its arguments have been that annexation would be illogical, that it would make the city government increasingly unwieldy, that it would increase the taxes and the cost of city government, that it would add to the traffic and congestion problems that Philadelphia is already seeking to solve.

Howard Strong, of Narberth, member of the board, was one of those interviewed in connection with the annexation question. He explained the attitude of The Regional Planning Commission. "There is no question," he said, "but that the suburbs from an economical and a social standpoint have grown to a stage where they are really a part of the city. There is a feeling in certain parts that Philadelphia should reach out and take in these surrounding townships and boroughs just as New York has been doing and is again contemplating doing. This is the logical result of having many independent communities with the same governmental problems."

"Our Regional Planning Board, however, says that this is not the logical answer. One reason is that a city annexing its suburbs becomes unwieldy. We feel that a plan similar to the one used at Boston is more desirable. The city of Boston instead of gobbling up its suburban communities has brought 41 of them together in a joint Metropolitan Planning Commission. Here the city and its outlying communities have been able to work in co-operation on joint problems such as highways, water supply, sewerage systems, parks and the like. And these common problems have been settled satisfactorily without any of the suburban communities being forced to give up their independence as governmental units."

"There are problems which every community in a metropolitan region have that are common. They can't be solved independently for long, and the development of co-operation in solving these is the only antidote for annexation. Such a scheme of co-operation has been developed in the Boston metropolitan area and we believe it can be done here. We prefer this to annexation because we feel it is a more satisfactory and a more wholesome solution."

"Another argument against annexation," Mr. Strong continued, "is that cost of government in the city increases as to the square of population. Research is now being made into this and I think it will soon prove conclusively that annexation may not be economical."

Facts About Jeddo-Highland Coal

It is Tested

Every car of Jeddo-Highland Coal is rigidly inspected before it leaves the mines for market.

Two men go over each car of coal, taking samples from different parts of the car which are tested by screening and weighing. If the coal does not come within the standard limits regarding size, or if the refuse content exceeds a certain per cent, the coal is condemned, the car dumped, and the coal run back through the breader.

Needless to say, the coal that passes muster must be good. AND WE ARE SELLING IT.

A cheap tube can cost you 10 times its price

THIRTY-NINE YEARS of tubebuilding experience has proved to Dunlop that "cheap tubes" do not pay.

That is why Dunlop tubes are made casing shaped. It costs a little more than to build them on a straight pole, as cheap tubes are built.

But a casing-shaped Dunlop tube is strong everywhere. The outside edge is not weakened by excess stretch. The side next to the rim has no wrinkles to crack with age and blow out. A Dunlop tube protects your casing, because it fits. And your casing is worth ten times the cost of the tube.

We strongly recommend a Dunlop tube for every casing

pastor is waiting and forthwith the ceremony proceeds.

The business of marriage is a serious one with these Catholics, and the group now at the altar steps gives additional evidence of that fact. For the previous three Sundays the world had been asked if there were any reasons why Marie and Joseph should not enter wedlock and no answer had been made. They have been made aware that their sacred contract is dissoluble only by death, if it has been properly consummated in the first instance, and they now ask Father Hayes to bless their troth and to bind them one. The Sacrament is administered and the man and the maid are now lawfully wedded husband and wife. The pastor takes time to exalt the new state, to define once again the Christian concept of marriage, to urge a great and generous spirit of mutual compatibility, and he blesses them with a fond and loving solicitude. The party then descends from the altar steps and the beautiful Mass of the Nuptials is now about to be celebrated.

The Catholics claim that at every ebb and flow of life, in every departure and in every contingency, from the cradle to the grave, their Church is alert for their safe-being and never fails to stress the spiritual values befitting the occasion. In the Mass of the marriage the whole ritual seems to glow with a great love which is akin to that which throbs in the breasts of those who seek the new estate, and in their behalf the Church is insistent in its appeal for Heaven's benediction.

"May the God of Israel join you together; and may He be with you, Who was merciful to two only children; and now, O Lord, make them bless Thee more fully."

The Epistle to the Ephesians, with little left for feminism to take its roots, and the Gospel which rebukes the Pharisees, that marriage may at once be understood for what it is, are both included in the vivid worship we are now witnessing. The celebrant goes on and his prayer is in constant supplication for those within the rail. Then comes the second and greater Sacrament, the Blessed Eucharist, and the first bread of the wedded life is the Bread of Eternal Life. Before the Mass is ended, the couple ascend the steps once more and over them is made a fervent appeal for the holiness and happiness of the career ahead of them. Follows then the general blessing and Marie and Joseph pass down the aisle as the wedding march resumes its sway.

Then we all went over to the Merion Tribute House for the wedding feast. There always ought to be a wedding feast. There was one at Canaan. That was where the first great miracle occurred. Forevermore there could be no doubt in hearts of men that it was good to be joyful and glad and to make merry. Life is often leavened just that way. The fine weather continued and the company was altogether splendid. It was good to be there. In the afternoon the young people left for Canada.

In addition to Rev. Robert F. Hayes, the pastor of St. Margaret's, the priests in attendance were Rev. T. A. Brady, formerly assistant at St. Margaret's; Rev. Edward Cunnie, Rev. Robert M. C. Maguinness, of Marblehead, Mass.; Rev. John Murray and Rev. Robert Tracy, S. J.

The ushers were Mr. Alexis M. Carlin, Mr. Philip Blankensee, Mr. Harry Crosson and Mr. Robert E. Devine.

THE BIG QUESTION

What kind of lumber shall I select for the several repair jobs around the house?

First thing to be considered is your budget.

Second, do you want to make a temporary repair or permanent one?

Third, can you wait indefinitely, or do you want to start immediately?

It's a rather mistaken idea that a board must be clear of knots to prolong its life. Quite the opposite is often true. In White Pine, for example, you may get a board that is practically all cut out of the sap part of the tree, and it will rot quickly. The heart boards may be full of knots, but the lasting quality is there, and, if properly painted, the knots will be obscured. There is quite a difference in the cost of these, and you are getting the longer life out of the cheaper board.

TRACK MEN AGAIN WIN CHAMPIONSHIP

Lower Merion Takes Suburban Title at Cheltenham Meet.

TEAM HAS NEVER LOST

Lower Merion's undefeated track team marched to another victory and took the Suburban Championships at Cheltenham, Saturday. The meet was a tight one, but as usual Lower Merion played a leading part in final honors.

The scores were: Lower Merion, 27, with Cheltenham, Chester and several others in the background.

Captain Frank Houseman and Corrigan again led the field in scoring. Houseman won the 100, made second in the 220, and fifth in the broad jump. Corrigan created a new school record in the broad jump with a leap of 21 feet 4 1/2 inches, bettering Peterson's former record by 1 1/2 inches. Corrigan made second in the high jump, with a leap of five feet nine inches.

The splendid spirit of the rest of the team puts Lower Merion in position for more championships. Saturday the track team goes to the Norristown Interscholastics to stand its last test of the season.

Four junior high school track records were shattered Friday at Ardmore when the Lower Merion Junior High track team, following the lead of the L. M. Senior High, beat a Norristown rival. Its victim was Stewart Junior High, of Norristown, and the final tally was 72-28.

The first mark to fall was the 100-yard dash, captured by Reynolds, of Lower Merion, in the record time of 10.9-10 seconds. The quarter-mile run record was next lowered. This event was captured by Ginyard, of Stewart, in 58.4-5 seconds.

Two junior relays, the quarter mile and the half mile, were next to go. The half mile was taken by Lower Merion in 1 minute and 40 seconds, while the quarter was captured by the county seat team, in the time of 53 seconds flat.

Marks, a Lower Merion athlete, with three first places, was high scorer while Ginyard, of Stewart, with 11 points, was second. Of 11 events Lower Merion captured 9 first places, clean sweeps in the discus, high jump and pole vault, and one of the relays.

The annual Junior-Senior Dance given by the Class of '28 to the Class of '27, Saturday, was voted one of the most successful affairs ever held at the High School. The Junior High gymnasium was colorfully decorated with light pink, green and yellow crepe paper, while wicker furniture and subdued lamps artistically lined the walls.

Patrons were: Mr. and Mrs. George Gerenbeck, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Dothard, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sellers, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. N. L. Knipe, Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Quinn, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. S. Edgar Downs, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Byrnes, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Pennypacker and Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Knowlton.

NARBERTH WINS FIRST AND LOSES SECOND HOME GAME

Gilfillian, pinch-hitting for Keyes, came to bat with two out, and slammed the double-bagger that brought Burns home with the winning run. Narberth Has Bad Luck.

Gladwyn visited Narberth Monday afternoon and left devastation in its trail. The score of 3-1 was a result of bad luck for Narberth, and poor support of Charlie Townsend's excellent pitching. Only six hits were allowed Gladwyn, but they gave her two runs in the second and another in the ninth. The Ardmore harmonica band furnished music for the affair.

Three times during the fracas, Narberth loaded the bases, and each time it was unable to get a man home. George Fleck's homer in the third inning constituted Narberth's lone run.

Humphries clouted a homer in the first, but his stumble between third and home enabled an alert Gladwynite to run him down for a heart-rending out. Loaded bases in the third inning remained loaded while Murray struck out.

Varney Fleck reached first in the eighth inning, Babb walked, and George Fleck was hit by a pitched ball. Result: Three loaded bases. Burns hit to Fisher, who threw Varney Fleck out at home plate. During an argument Babb also started home and was also thrown out, by Vockel to Jameason. Davis popped to Dugan, and the second chance went a-glimmering.

With one out, and Townsend, Humphries and Murray on bases in the final inning, Varney Fleck struck out and Babb was thrown out at first. Gladwyn tallied its third run, and the game ended.

Narberth has an opportunity to retaliate today, when it again plays Gladwyn. The game will be held at Gladwyn. Local fans are urged to aid their team by their presence.

"Chickens and..."

Several weeks ago an enthusiastic "gentleman farmer" recommended to the library a book for children on growing vegetables and chickens for profit. Following is his review of the book:

In "Chickens and Vegetables Incorporated," Samuel Emery tells how a father turned the efforts of his sons to earn vacation money into an education in the elements of finance. They formed a corporation, issued stock, in which they traded among themselves, thereby learning some factors that influence prices; they issued bonds to finance an extension of their chicken business, and learned how to make a balance sheet, which taught them the meaning of assets, depreciation, sinking fund, etc.

All this is so simply and clearly stated that a child can understand it, but unfortunately there is too little story, too little action, to hold the child's interest and sugar-coat the information.

There are, however, two classes to whom the book might be very useful. First, to parents who might wish to adapt the methods to the instruction of their own youngsters. Second, to adults who would like to understand the mysteries of finance, but find the technical jargon of the financial journal or manual an obstacle.

This book is now ready for circulation in the children's department, together with several other new books as listed below:

A Mayflower Maid Knipe
Apache Gold Altschuler
Chickens and Vegetable Incorporated, Emery
Cudjo's Cave Trowbridge
Five Little Peppers Grown Up... Sidney
Jibby Jones Butler
Lad, a Dog Terhune
Stories from Dickens McSpadden
The Mounted Troop Ames
The Story of the Mikado Gilbert
The Sunbonnet Babies' Book... Grover
The Trail of the Spanish Horse, Schultz
Three Little Kittens Pyle

to the room, so that it can be equipped with the necessary materials for the handling of a class of youngsters in the 4-6 year age class.

The resignation of Miss Doris Eames as domestic art teacher was accepted with regret. Miss Eames, who had been re-appointed, has secured a position at Williamsport, Pa., near her home. Her position and that of a mathematics-science teacher for the junior high school are the only vacancies left in the staff.

The Powell Construction Company of Ardmore was awarded the contract for the construction of the new passageway to be constructed between the two buildings. The cost of the work will be $950, and the structure will be ready by the opening of the fall term. It will serve to protect the younger children going between the two buildings in inclement weather.

The Narberth schools will close Friday, June 17, and will not reopen until September 12. The first week in September will be devoted to the annual Teachers' Institute.

In Conclusion ---

THE UNDERSIGNED group of Narberth business men have, for twenty-six weeks, sent forth a message in the advertising columns of this paper, showing to the readers the advantages of the local business section, and asking that Narberth business be given to Narberth business men.

THIS IS THE LAST of the series. We merchants have heard many comments from the readers of Our Town, proving that folks are interested in home progress.

FOR WE ARE progressing. Every day sees improvement. Better and larger stores, better stocks, better parking, better values, more complete service---all these things are made possible when the needs of Narberth are filled from local stores.

IN CONCLUDING our case as expressed in these advertisements, we find that the past messages have promised courtesy, convenience and service. These promises we are trying to fulfill, and believe that the future will see them even more completely fulfilled.

AS THE FULL scope of Narberth's goods and service become apparent, it will be realized that alluring bargains from afar mean little; that time and transportation are valuable; that personal acquaintance and mutual trust are necessary.

THE MESSAGE we leave with you has but three words. It is a rule through which we all will gain---

D. A. R. ADVISES ON USE OF FLAG

Reminder Issued for Guidance of Residents on Flag Day.

PART OF CODE QUOTED

Anticipating a wide observance of Flag Day in Narberth next Tuesday, the Dr. Benjamin Rush Chapter, D. A. R., has issued a resume of several of the important rules on the use of the flag.

The statement of the chapter follows:

"1. The flag should be displayed only from sunrise to sunset, or between such hours as may be designated by proper authority.

"2. When carried in a procession with another flag or flags, the flag of the United States of America should be either on the marching right, that is the flag's own right, or when there is a line of other flags, the flag of the United States of America may be in front of the center of that line.

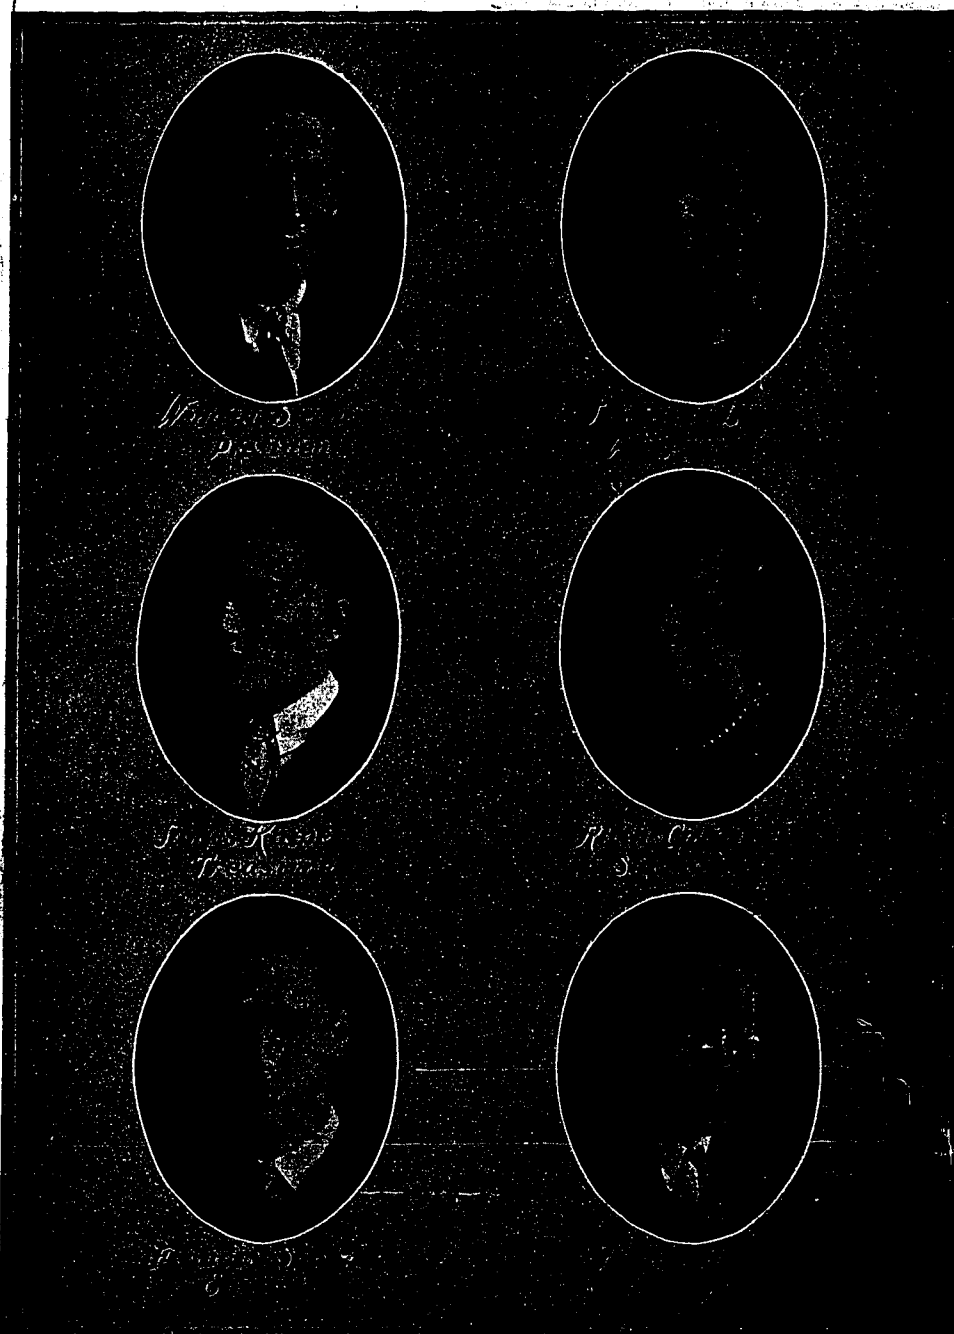

"3. When the flag is displayed in a manner other than by being flown from a staff it should be displayed flat, whether indoors or out. When displayed either horizontally or vertically against a wall, the Union should be uppermost and to the flag's own right, i. e., to the observer's left.

"When festoons, rosettes or drapings are desired, bunting of blue, white and red should be used, but never the flag.

"4. When the flag is in such a condition that is no longer a fitting emblem for display, it should not be cast aside, but destroyed as a whole, privately, preferably by burning or by some other method in harmony with the reverence and respect we owe to the emblem representing our country."

LOWER MERION HIGH GRADUATES 137 AT COMMENCEMENT FRIDAY EVENING

School Board Adds Seven to List of Grads, but Class
Still Under '26.

SCHOLARSHIPS GIVEN

Commencement activities for the Class of 1927, Lower Merion High School, begun last Friday, came to a climax last evening when the actual graduation exercises were held in the auditorium of the Junior High School in Ardmore. One hundred and thirty seven received their diplomas—seven more than first announced—but still five less than the class which fared forth last June.

On May 11, just one month ago, Superintendent S. E. Downs presented to the School Board the names of the 137 Seniors who were approved for graduation. It was announced then that there were still some members of the class who had yet work to complete before they would be entitled to diplomas and these were given three weeks grace to make good. Seven of this group completed their credits and on Wednesday night at another meeting of the School Board their names were officially added to the list of graduates.

The commencement week activities began Friday morning at Senior assembly in the high school when the four honor students who took the leading parts in the final exercises last evening were announced. They were Walton Forstall, Jr., of Rosemont, valedictorian; Sarah Huntingdon, of Ardmore, salutatorian; Emily Scull, of Gladwyne, essayist, and Francis Shoemaker, of Conshohocken, class orator.

Following these announcements, the Seniors gave a program celebrating the end of classes and all regular work. A feature was a humorous skit of several scenes, which was in the nature of a prophecy and depicted the futures of all members of the class. Another part of the program was the awarding of football jerseys to all the Senior lettermen of last fall's squad and the presentation of a medal by these grid men to Coach Albert C. Adam.

Other sweaters were presented at the commencement exercises to boys who have won distinctive honors in athletics. Awards were also made of over 25 scholarships and prizes donated annually by various civic clubs and individuals of the township.

A list of the students to receive other special awards was completed yesterday by Principal Charles B. Pennypacker and his teachers' committees. Announcement will be made at the Alumni reception.

SCOUT EXECUTIVES PAY SURPRISE VISIT HERE

Commend Narberth Boys on Inspection Rating.

Perhaps the Boy Scout headquarters people thought they would spring a surprise on the Narberth Troop last Friday evening by staging an official inspection, but much to their gratification they found the local scouts prepared in every detail.

A. G. Ingram, scout executive of the Main Line district, in company with H. F. Faucett, assistant scout commissioner, made their appearance as the bugle was sounded, and after presenting their credentials put the boys through a rigid inspection based on the official rating scale adopted by the national organization.

The records were carefully gone over, and notations made, from which the Narberth Troop will later on be given a rating.

Speaking unofficially after the meeting, Mr. Ingram complimented the boys very highly, saying that in his estimation they were way above the average in each of the 25 subdivisions of his rating scale. He was extremely impressed with the operation of the tribunal, before which the boys are brought to answer any charges preferred against their conduct. This was something new for him in scouting, it being originated on the part of the local troop.

Commissioner Faucett spoke at length to the boys on the plans for the conduct of Camp Delmont this summer. This camp will run for a period of eight weeks, commencing June 26.

The number of local scouts who will attend has not as yet been ascertained.

MEISLE IS SOLOIST OF MUSIC FESTIVAL

College Glee Club and Members of Philadelphia Orchestra Will Assist.

PROMINENT PATRONS

Clarence C. Nice, of Narberth, organizer and director of the Main Line Music Festival, has prepared a program of varied features for the sixth annual festival, which will be held on the grounds of the Bryn Mawr Polo Fields this evening.

Kathryn Meisle, contralto of the Chicago Civic Opera Company, will be the assisting artist. Miss Meisle, who is a Philadelphian by birth, occupies a high position in the concert and opera world. She has selected the Gretchen Gott, from Rienzi, for her first number. This will be followed by arias from La Prophete, Samson and Delilah and two songs, "The Maid of Cadix" and "Eyes of Blue." Fifty members of the Philadelphia Orchestra, conducted by Mr. Nice, will open the program with the overture, "Merry Wives of Windsor," by Nicolai.

College Club Will Assist.

The Haverford College Glee Club has arranged an interesting program for their part of the program. They will sing "Oh, Hail Us, Ye Free," "The Jolly Roger," "Cotton Dolly," the Brahms Lullaby, Liza Lee and, by special request, as their third group, a collection of Haverford College songs. The fourth group will be "Dreaming of My Old Home, Sweet Home" and "O, Marjorie, Wake Up."

GIVE LUNCHEON

An annual luncheon and donation day for the benefit of the Holiday House at Valley Forge will be given by the Evangelical Circle of Kings' Daughters at the Home for the Aged, 10 Sabine avenue, Narberth, on Wednesday from 12 until 2. Tickets, sixty cents, can be had at the Home or at Mrs. Hewitt's, 116 Essex avenue.

It is hoped friends will remember this worthy cause with liberal donations in money and useful gifts. About $40 was realized from the rummage sale. Thanks to friends.

PHONE COMPANY TO COME TO ARDMORE

Will Occupy Building in Development of Old Dixon Tract.

SOME TENANTS COMING

The suburban business offices of the Bell Telephone Company will shortly be moved to Ardmore from West Philadelphia, according to James K. Stone, of Stone and Kays, the developers of the old Dixon property on Montgomery avenue.

Work has already been started on the building to house the telephone company at the corner of Anderson and Coulter avenues. A two-story limestone structure, harmonizing with the new post office, the bank building, and the rest of the development will be erected.

No statement has been made by the telephone company as to the personnel affected by the move; but it is understood that all the suburban business departments will be included, and that the present offices at 5219 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, will be continued to serve the metropolitan business districts now housed there.

"The acquisition of the Bell Telephone Company as a tenant," said Mr. Stone, "should serve to further emphasize to the residents of Ardmore the value of what we are doing here. But it is only in accord with our plans for the development of the rest of the tract."

It is understood that negotiations are also under way to secure as tenants in the new development another nationally known public service corporation.

MISS WETHERILL TELLS MOTHERS OF FIRST DAYS

Early Days at School are Most Important for Children.

Miss Wetherill, whose name and person is loved and admired by boys and girls and parents who have come in contact with her during her long years of service in the Narberth schools, addressed informally a meeting held last Tuesday afternoon in the Elementary Building. This was a meeting of the mothers whose children would enter the first grade in the fall.

The main subject of Miss Wetherill's talk was some of the ways in which the parents could help the children in making their first acquaintance with the school. She emphasized the point that the first days in school had a very significant effect on all the later years.

After explaining the reasons for the physical examination and vaccination, she urged the mothers to teach children that they should give ready obedience to commands and requests from the teachers so that the group of which they are a part should not be delayed. She advised marking the clothing of each child, and being sure that before entering school he could put on all his outside garments, especially over-shoes.

Many other suggestions were given in response to questions of the mothers who were present with the result that both they and the children are looking forward to and preparing intelligently for this important event.

THE WRONG SISTER

Kathryn C. Aungst, a sophomore at Lower Merion High School has written "Our Town" correcting an error in the American Legion's list of awards made last week.

The winner of the prize was Adele Aungst, her younger sister, a student in the eighth grade of the Narberth schools, who received the Auxiliary medal.

DONATIONS CONTINUE

Donations to the Red Cross Fund for Mississippi flood relief are still being received. The Kuneki Camp Fire Girls donated $10, and a check for $5 was received this week from Mrs. Albert H. Nulty, of Meeting House lane, Narberth.

RECEIVE DIPLOMAS

Graduates at West Chester Include Many From County.

Five residents of the Main Line are included in the graduating class of the State Normal School at West Chester, members of which received their diplomas this week. Dr. George Leslie Omwake, president of Ursinus College, delivered the baccalaureate address to the class. The diplomas were presented by Dr. Andrew Thomas Smith, principal of the school.

Ruth A. Wynn and Dorothy Irwin, of Ardmore; Alice M. Hamlet and Dorothy Kavanagh, of Bryn Mawr; Margaret A. Lamb, of Narberth, and Mildred B. Jarden, of Cynwyd, were among the graduates.

More than thirty other graduates were from Montgomery county.

Constructive Recreation

As you drive by No. 9 Shirley Road, Narberth, see what Ralph dunneth with Shull's LUMBER.

Ralph, you know, is the genial owner of the Narberth Coal Company, and believes in constructive recreation. More of our readers would spend their time this way if they knew lumber could be bought cut to size and of a grade that would match their limit of expenditure and a kind suitable for any job.

YOU have the ability to bring out Nature's beauty by the proper use of lumber—a Fence—Trellis—Arbor—Pergola. What is more beautiful in garden or lawn than these, painted white?

May we help you? Ask for book of designs, if interested.

Facts About Jeddo-Highland Coal It is Tested

Every car of Jeddo-Highland Coal is rigidly inspected before it leaves the mines for market.

Two men go over each car of coal, taking samples from different parts of the car which are tested by screening and weighing. If the coal does not come within the standard limits regarding size, or if the refuse content exceeds a certain per cent, the coal is condemned, the car dumped, and the coal run back through the breaker.

Needless to say, the coal that passes muster must be good. AND WE ARE SELLING IT.

HOMELIKE

Just as the name implies
a home laundry service

If you like to have all your washing and ironing done, and at a price that's almost unprecedented for such complete service, you'll want to try our Homelike Service.

Everything is washed sweetly clean in pure water. Then we iron everything—Dresses, Shirts, Skirts, Children's Clothes—and finally, such few pieces as need it we touch up around the Cuffs, Neck, etc., with a hand iron. All you have to do is lay your things away—no laundress to bother with, no mussy, steamy work in the kitchen or basement; a whole day for additional leisure gained.

Because of the very moderate charge we make for this service we use no starch.

proves a tire's
value

EVERY NEW TIRE LOOKS GOOD.

Dunlops not only look good, but they make good—over rocks and gravel, and ruts and sand.

Thirty-nine years of experience has shown Dunlop how to design a tread that gives maximum traction and slow, smooth wear.

This Dunlop tread is the toughest development of rubber known. And this same tough tread-rubber is carried clear around the sidewall to give maximum protection against rut wear.

You get the full benefit of all this extra tread-mileage because each Dunlop is built with the famous trouble-free cable-twist Dunlop carcass, to provide the high-strength and elasticity so vital to long tire life.

ANOTHER TRACK VICTORY

With a total of 30 5-8 points, Lower Merion won the twenty-third annual Norristown High School interscholastic track and field meets Saturday over a large field. Norristown was a fairly close second, with 23 points.

The discus, broad and high jumps gave Lower Merion 16 points, and first place in the med-ley relay helped build up the total, near the end of the meet. The Maroon and White team had only 14 points, compared with Norristown's 23, until the final events brought in the needed points. Lower Merion now has its second leg on the championship cup.

VET AT JERSEY CITY

Among the Civil War veterans who decorated the soldiers' graves at the Bayview Cemetery, Jersey City, was one of the oldest G. A. R. men in this part of the country. Despite his advanced age of 94 years, Comrade Thomas G. Hall journeyed from his home in Nar-berth to be with his comrades at the Greenville Cemetery.

While You Are Away

¶ We suppose you are going away. Perhaps it will be but a week-end, or you may be closing your house for the summer. ¶ Now, of all times of the year, you need a safe deposit box. In that box should go papers or jewelry whose loss would be serious if burglars or flames should visit your home while you are away. ¶ In the solution of any of your summer financial problems, you will find this bank ready to offer every aid. Stop in before you go away.
